Simple Living Manifesto
Living a life where you're happier and kinder towards yourself is not just about what you can do. But also about what you are already doing, and especially those habits that do have a negative and unhappy impact on your life.

10 Things You Need to Stop Doing to Start Living a Happier Life
When one door of happiness closes, another opens. But we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one that has been opened for us.

10 Keys to Happier Living
Give someone compliments often. You can easily lift someone's spirits by complimenting their looks, attitude, or anything else you personally find remarkable. Not only will it help them feel it will help you be seen as a genuine who is uplifting and nice to have around.

Positive Reminders
All situations are temporary. Nothing lasts forever. Building resilience means the hot cup of coffee goes cold, like that. Everything is always in transition.

Nike

The new year. Comes given dress in winter, commercial advertising off human runs public logistic budget offices.

nike sportswear
The Monarcha E.D.G.E. jacket coat is a true favorite for Nike, the 1987 Monarcha Run, but re-imagine the retro's classic fit with a VORTEX Fit system that fits the hood directly on the front rather than a side zipper. Prentiss adds his own unique branding cues including signature waves on the heel and toe, giving aesthetic intrigue to the contemporary comfort shoe.

Fashion Trends
The Spring/Summer 2019 shows, which happened towards the end of last year, were many, many things. While the majority of designers continued with the status quo in print, what others have used their voice for an expression of female empowerment.

Women's Fashion Trends
The question of how designers envision women, what a woman wears and the image she projects has become a point of hot debate. The big takeaway from the season? It's clear these vision that really are returned to reflecting our truth in some way so that we can all use.
